Diolch am gael eich ysgol i fod yn rhan o Ddiwrnod o Fyfyrnod 2024

Mae Diwrnod o Fyfyrnod Marie Curie ddydd Sul 3 Mawrth yn foment arbennig yn y calendr i gofio pawb a fu farw yn ystod y pandemig, i gefnogi pobl sy'n galaru, ac i gymryd amser i gydnabod a myfyrio ar y tristwch, y golled ar y cyd a'r galar heb ei ddatrys a ddaeth i'r amlwg o gyfnod mor anarferol.

Fel elusen diwedd oes flaenllaw'r DU, rydym yn gwybod pa mor bwysig yw cydnabod a myfyrio ar ein galar. Dyna pam rydyn ni'n annog pawb i gymryd eiliad i fyfyrrio, megis munud o dawelwch, i anrhyneddu'r rhai sydd wedi marw a rhannu enw rhywun annwyl rydych chi'n ei gofio ar y diwrnod. Gallwch wneud hyn ar y cyfryngau cymdeithasol; mewn digwyddiad lleol; neu mewn unrhyw ffordd sy'n teimlo'n iawn i chi.

Er bod y diwrnod wedi'i wreiddio yn y pandemig, rydym yn gofyn i ysgolion gymryd rhan mewn unrhyw ffordd sy'n gweddu i'w cymuned ar unrhyw adeg yn ystod yr wythnos cyn neu ar ôl y diwrnod. Boed hynny'n cynllunio gwasanaethau neu sesiwn ar alar neu blannu er cof am bobl sydd wedi marw yn ystod y flwyddyn ddiwethaf. Sut bynnag y byddwch chi'n dewis cymryd rhan, gadewch i ni gymryd y foment hon i gydnabod ein galar, cymryd amser a lle i fyfyrrio a chofio, ac i gefnogi ein gilydd.

Rydym yn gofyn i chi wneud y pethau canlynol...

Cymerwch amser i fyfyrrio

Defnyddiwch ein syniadau a'n hadnoddau i helpu eich ysgol i nodi'r diwrnod yn eich ffordd eich hun.

Rhannwch eu henw

Dyweddwch wrthym pwy mae eich ysgol yn cofio ar Ddiwrnod o Fyfyrnod eleni gan ddefnyddio ein petal y gellir ei lawrlwytho.

Cymerwch ran mewn digwyddiadau

Dyweddwch wrthym am y digwyddiadau myfyriol y mae eich ysgol yn eu cynllunio, megis munud o dawelwch, neu ymunwch â gweithgaredd myfyriol sy'n lleol i chi.

Thank you for getting your school involved in the Day of Reflection 2024

Marie Curie's Day of Reflection on Sunday 3 March is a special moment in the calendar to remember everyone who died during the pandemic, to support people who are grieving, and to take time to recognise and reflect on the sorrow, collective loss and unresolved grief that emerged from such unusual times.

As the UK's leading end of life charity, we know just how important it is to acknowledge and reflect on our grief. That's why we're encouraging everyone to take a moment to reflect, such as a minute's silence, to honour those who've died and share the name of a loved one you're remembering on the day. You can do this on social media; at a local event; or in any way that feels right to you.

Although the day is rooted in the pandemic, we're asking schools to get involved in any way that suits their community at any time in the week leading up to, or after the day. Whether that's planning an assembly or session on grief or planting in memory of people who have died in the past year. However you chose to get involved, let's take this moment to acknowledge our grief, take time and space to reflect and remember, and to support one another.

We're asking you to...

Take time to reflect

Make use of our ideas and resources to help your school mark the day in your own way.

Cyn i chi ddechrau, dyma rai awgrymiadau gan ein partneriaid, y Rhwydwaith Profedigaeth Plentyndod

Mae'r tudalenau isod yn cynnwys awgrymiadau o fwy o ffyrdd y gall eich ysgol gymryd rhan.

Gall cynnal gwers am brofedigaeth a galar deimlo'n frawychus ac yn llethol. Mae llawer o adnoddau ar gael i'ch cefnogi a'ch tywys drwy'r sgyrsiau pwysig hyn.

Edrychwr hefyd ar ein cymorth i oedolion, a allai fod o gymorth i chi'ch hun, rhieni/gwarcheidwaid neu gydweithwyr.

Mae'n bwysig iawn cael eich arwain gan eich disgyblion ac wrth gynllunio'r wers hon, gnewch yn siŵr eich bod yn caniatáu gwahanol ffyrdd i'ch disgyblion ymgysylltu â'r pynciau hyn. Meddyliwch am y canlynol:

- Mannau i gael amser allan os yw hwn yn bwnc sensitif i'r disgyblion hynny a allai fod yn delio â thrawma neu brofedigaeth.
- Gwahanol adnoddau sy'n ysgogi trafodaethau ynghylch cefnogi eich gilydd drwy ac ar ôl profedigaeth.
- Siarad am y pwnc yn gyntaf gyda disgyblion mewn profedigaeth hysbys a'u rhieni/gwarcheidwaid.

Cyn i chi gynllunio unrhyw wers, efallai yr hoffech ystyried y canlynol:

- Pa gwestiynau allai godi gan eich disgyblion a sut allech chi eu hateb? Er enghraifft, efallai y byddan nhw'n gofyn am wahanol gredoau am farwolaeth a galar.
- Sut byddwch chi'n paratoi disgybl y gwyddys ei fod mewn profedigaeth?
- Beth fyddwch chi'n ei wneud os bydd disgybl yn datgelu profedigaeth am y tro cyntaf yn ystod y wers?
- Beth fyddai'r arwyddion bod angen mwy o amser ar eich disgyblion i drafod hyn?
- Pa fesurau y byddwch yn eu rhoi ar waith ar gyfer unrhyw ddisgybl a allai fod yn ofidus ynghylch y pwnc hwn?
- Mae llawer mwy o gefnogaeth ac awgrymiadau adnoddau yng nghefn y pecyn hwn i helpu gydag unrhyw gynllunio.

Before you get started, here's some tips from our partners, the Childhood Bereavement Network

The following pages include suggestions of more ways your school can get involved.

Running a lesson about bereavement and grief can feel daunting and overwhelming. There are lots of resources available to support and guide you through these important conversations.

Please also look at our adult support, which you might find helpful for yourself, parents/guardians or colleagues.

It's really important to be led by your pupils and when planning this lesson, make sure you allow different ways for your pupils to engage around these topics. Think about:

- Spaces for time out if this is a sensitive topic for those pupils who could be dealing with trauma or bereavement.
- Different resources that provoke discussions around supporting each other through and after a bereavement.
- Talking about the topic first with known bereaved pupils and their parents/guardians.

Before you plan any lesson, you may want to consider the following:

- What questions might come up from your pupils and how might you answer them? For example, they might ask about different beliefs about death and grief.
- How will you prepare a pupil who is known to be bereaved?
- What will do you if a pupil discloses a bereavement for the first time during the lesson?
- What would be the signs that your pupils need more time to discuss this?
- What measures will you put in place for any pupil who may become upset or distressed about this topic?
- There's lots more support and suggested resources at the back of this pack to help with any planning.

Cofio a dathlu bywydau

Ar gyfer Diwrnod o Fyfyrdod eleni rydyn ni wedi creu petal Marie Curie melyn arbennig y gallwch ei ddefnyddio i rannu enw person sydd wedi marw rydych chi'n ei gofio ar y diwrnod.

Does dim ffordd gywir nac anghywir o alaru, ond dyma rai awgrymiadau i gychwyn arni:

Cadwch bethau'n syml

Gallai fod mor syml â gofyn i'ch disgyblion ysgrifennu enw neu addurno petal, ond os ydyn nhw am adrodd stori rhywun annwyl, mae hynny'n iawn hefyd.
Gofynnwch iddyn nhw ddweud wrthym
pwy maen nhw'n ei gofio ar y Diwrnod
o Fyfyrnod trwy ei ysgrifennu ar un o'n petalau y gellir eu lawrlwytho.

Rhannwch eich petal

Chi sydd i benderfynu sut rydych chi'n rhannu'ch petalau – efallai yr hoffech chi eu harddangos mewn ystafelloedd dosbarth neu yn y neuadd. Os ydych chi am i'ch petalau gael eu gweld gan hyd yn oed mwy o bobl, beth am rannu llun neu fideo gyda ni ar Instagram neu TikTok gan ddefnyddio #DayOfReflection a thagio @mariecurieuk

Crëwch ofod

Efallai yr hoffech chi sefydlu arddangosfa lle gall disgyblion, athrawon ac ymwelwyr ychwanegu eu petalau, neu efallai yr hoffech annog disgyblion i atodi eu petalau i goed ar dir yr ysgol.

Remembering and celebrating lives

For this year's Day of Reflection we've created a special yellow Marie Curie petal that you can use to share the name of a person who has died that you're remembering on the day.

There's no right or wrong way to use the petals, but here are a few suggestions for getting started:

Keep it simple

It could be as simple as asking your pupils to write a name or decorate a petal, though if they want to tell a loved one's story, that's fine too. Ask them to tell us who they're remembering on the Day of Reflection by writing it on one of our downloadable petals.

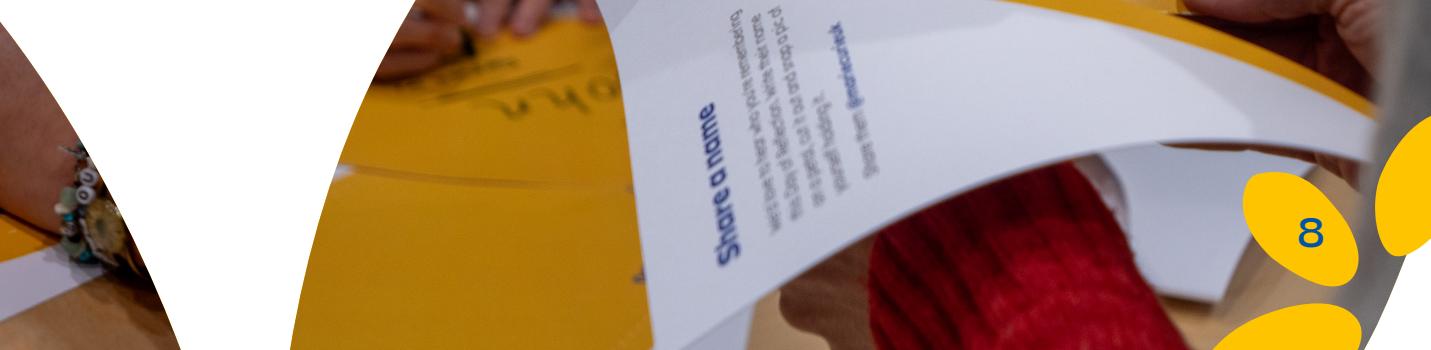

Share your petal

It's up to you how you share your petals – you might like to display them in classrooms or in the hall. If you want your petals to be seen by even more people, why not share a picture or video with us on Instagram or TikTok using #DayOfReflection and tagging @mariecurieuk

Create a space

You might like to set up a display where pupils, teachers and visitors can add their petals, or perhaps you'd like to encourage pupils to attach their petals to trees in the school grounds.

Share a name
We'd love to hear who you're remembering.
This Day of Reflection, write their name on a petal, cut it out and drop it in yourself holding it.
Share them @mariecurieuk

Plannu coeden neu flodau i symboleiddio gobaith

Yn ogystal â chofio ein hanwyliaid sydd wedi marw a chefnogi pobl sy'n galaru, mae'r Diwrnod o Ffyrdod hefyd yn ymwneud â gobaith ac edrych ymlaen.

Mae plannu coeden neu hau hadau yn y gobaith o flodau hardd y eich ysgol yn y misoedd i ddod yn un ffordd o wneud hyn.

Efallai yr hoffech chi gysegru coeden neu wely blodau i'r bobl yng nghymuned eich ysgol sydd wedi marw.

Gall natur ddod â chysur yn ystod galar mewn sawl ffordd wahanol.

I gael ysbrydoliaeth plannu, ewch i Siop Ardd Marie Curie.

Plant a tree or flowers to symbolise hope

As well as remembering our loved ones who've died and supporting people who are grieving, the Day of Reflection is also about hope and looking forward.

Planting a tree or sowing seeds in the hope of beautiful blooms in months to come at your school is one way to do this.

Perhaps you'd like to dedicate a tree or flower bed to the people in your school community who have died.

Nature can bring comfort during grief in lots of different ways. For planting inspiration, visit the Marie Curie Garden Shop.

Gwneud gweithgaredd ysgrifennu coffa

Gallwch ofyn i'ch myfyrwyr ysgrifennu am rywun maen nhw'n ei gofio. Does dim rhaid iddyn nhw fod wedi marw – efallai nad ydyn nhw wedi gallu eu gweld ers sbel neu eu bod nhw wedi symud i ffwrdd.

1. Rhowch ddwy funud iddyn nhw ysgrifennu popeth maen nhw'n ei gofio amdanyn nhw mor gyflym â phosibl.
2. Gofynnwch iddyn nhw ysgrifennu llythyr i'r person, a'i roi mewn amlen gyda'i enw arno.
3. Arddangoswch yr amlenni ar Wal Fyfyrio. Nid yw'r llythyrau eu hunain byth yn cael eu gweld, dim ond y person y cyfeirir atynt.

Do a remembrance writing activity

You could ask your students to write about someone they remember. They don't have to have died – it could just be that they haven't been able to see them for a while or they've moved away.

1. Give them two minutes to write out everything they remember about them as quickly as possible.
2. Ask them to write the person a letter, put it in an envelope with their name on.
3. Display the envelopes as a Wall of Reflection. The letters themselves are never seen, just the person they're addressed to.

There are more writing resources available from our partners Twinkl.

Ar gyfer disgyblion iau oedran ysgol gynradd, defnyddiwch y gweithgaredd deng munud hwn i ddod ag amser myfyrio i'ch diwrnod.

- Gofynnwch i'ch disgyblion ddychmygu eu bod yn hedyn bach ac i ymbelennu'n dynn, dychmygu eu bod yn cysgu yn y pridd meddal, gan gadw eu hanadlu'n araf ac yn hamddenol.
- Arweiniwch eu hanadl: Cyfrifwch 2, 3, 4, dal 2, 3, 4, allan 2, 3, 4, dal 2, 3, 4.
- Ar ôl ychydig, chwaraewch fideos glaw, defnyddiwch ddewin glaw ac effeithiau sain haul pefriol.
- Gofynnwch iddyn nhw ddechrau symud yn araf, ymestyn a thyfu tuag at y nenfwd.
- Pan maen nhw'n flodau wedi'u tyfu'n llawn, trowch y gwyntyll ymlaen a dychmygu bod eu dail a'u petala yn symud yn ysgafn yn y gwynt.

Do a ‘growing spring flower’ guided meditation

For younger primary school aged pupils, use this ten-minute activity to bring some reflection time into your day.

- Ask your pupils to imagine they were a tiny seed and to wrap up into a tight ball, imagine they’re sleeping in the soft soil, keeping their breathing nice and slow.
- Guide their breathing: Count 2, 3, 4, hold 2, 3, 4, out 2, 3, 4, hold 2, 3, 4.
- After a short while, play rain videos, use a rain maker and twinkly sun sound effects.
- Ask them to slowly begin to move, stretch and grow towards the ceiling.
- When they’re fully grown flowers, put the fan on and imagine their leaves and petals leaves gently moving in the wind.

Resources from the Childhood Bereavement Network

Bereavement is a tricky subject to talk about. Many people feel awkward discussing death, dying and bereavement with those closely affected. It can be hard to talk about these subjects at school, as you could be concerned about the reactions and emotions of your pupils. Children and young people deserve the chance to explore the impact of bereavement and how they can help each other in a safe, neutral space like school. After a short introduction to coping with grief and bereavement, the majority of pupils feel they would know how to support a friend if someone close to them died. The Childhood Bereavement Network (CBN) has a range of resources to help with this.

Growing in Grief Awareness toolkit which allows schools to review how they support bereaved pupils, working towards a safe and inclusive environment that is sensitive and flexible to the changing needs of children and young people.

Postcards to help children and young people who are bereaved communicate the support they need from teachers and other adults in their life. The postcards can get pupils talking about what works for them and open up other discussions around understanding bereavement and being compassionate.

Many of CBN's local members can also provide training and support.

About Marie Curie

Marie Curie is the UK's leading end of life charity. We are here for anyone with an illness they're likely to die from, and those close to them. Whatever the illness, wherever you are, we're with you to the end.

We bring 75 years of experience and leading research to the care we give at home, in our hospices and over the phone. And we push for a better end of life for all by campaigning and sharing research to change the system.
